

LAWRS: Latin American Women's Rights Service

“Through our wonderful journey with liV, we've learned that this accreditation isn't just about meeting standards - it's a heartwarming symbol of our dedication to achieving volunteer excellence. It stands as a beacon for fostering a community of passionate individuals devoted to advancing the cause of social justice.”

✓ The benefits of liV for our organisation

Being awarded the liV accreditation boosted the confidence and motivation of staff members and volunteers. It validates their efforts and demonstrates their commitment to best practices.

liV accreditation will enhance the reputation of the organization and provide assurance to trustees that the organization is effectively governed, adhering to best practices in volunteer management..

Improvements made during this process can lead to a more positive and enriching experience for volunteers, and volunteers may feel more confident.

We hope this achievement will be viewed more favorably by.. funders, government agencies, and other stakeholders.. a sign the organization is committed to professionalism and excellence in all aspects, including volunteer engagement.
